

contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337, and in section 210.10 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 CFR 210.10 (2025).

Scope of Investigation: Having considered the complaint, the U.S. International Trade Commission, on September 15, 2026, ordered that—

(1) Pursuant to subsection (b) of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, an investigation be instituted to determine whether there is a violation of subsection (a)(1)(B) of section 337 in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, or the sale within the United States after importation of certain products identified in paragraph (2) by reason of infringement of one or more of claims 1–23 of the '078 patent; claims 1–43 of the '560 patent; and claims 1–30 of the '121 patent, and whether an industry in the United States exists as required by subsection (a)(2) of section 337;

(2) Pursuant to section 210.10(b)(1) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 CFR 210.10(b)(1), the plain language description of the accused products or category of accused products, which defines the scope of the investigation, is “electronic devices with certain audio technologies, such as mobile phones, tablets, and products containing certain audio features such as spatial enhancement for stereo speakers using gain adjustment of spatial and nonspatial components together with adjustments for asymmetries between left and right speakers; dynamic audio enhancement that applies enhancements based on rendering system information and metadata indicative of an audio consumption software application; and/or spatial audio enhancement using crosstalk processing together with compensation for spectral defects caused by the crosstalk processing”;

(3) Pursuant to Commission Rule 210.50(b)(1), 19 CFR 210.50(b)(1), the presiding administrative law judge shall take evidence or other information and hear arguments from the parties or other interested persons with respect to the public interest in this investigation, as appropriate, and provide the Commission with findings of fact and a recommended determination on this issue, which shall be limited to the statutory public interest factors set forth in 19 U.S.C. 1337(d)(1), (f)(1), (g)(1);

(4) For the purpose of the investigation so instituted, the following are hereby named as parties upon which this notice of investigation shall be served:

(a) The complainant is:

BoomCloud 360 Inc., 687 S Coast Hwy
101 Ste 239, Encinitas, CA 92024

(b) The respondents are the following entities alleged to be in violation of section 337, and are the parties upon which the complaint is to be served:

Apple, Inc., One Apple Park Way,
Cupertino, CA 95014

Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., 129
Samsung-Ro, Yeongtong-gu, Suwon-si, Gyeonggi-do, 443–742, South
Korea

Samsung Electronics America, Inc., 85
Challenger Rd., Ridgefield Park, NJ
07660

Google LLC, 1600 Amphitheatre
Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043

(b) The Office of Unfair Import
Investigations, U.S. International Trade
Commission, 500 E Street SW, Suite
401, Washington, DC 20436; and

(5) For the investigation so instituted, the Chief Administrative Law Judge, U.S. International Trade Commission, shall designate the presiding Administrative Law Judge.

Responses to the complaint and the notice of investigation must be submitted by the named respondents in accordance with section 210.13 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 CFR 210.13. Pursuant to 19 CFR 201.16(e) and 210.13(a), such responses will be considered by the Commission if received not later than 20 days after the date of service by the Commission of the complaint and the notice of investigation. Extensions of time for submitting responses to the complaint and the notice of investigation will not be granted unless good cause therefor is shown.

Failure of a respondent to file a timely response to each allegation in the complaint and in this notice may be deemed to constitute a waiver of the right to appear and contest the allegations of the complaint and this notice, and to authorize the administrative law judge and the Commission, without further notice to the respondent, to find the facts to be as alleged in the complaint and this notice and to enter an initial determination and a final determination containing such findings, and may result in the issuance of an exclusion order or a cease and desist order or both directed against the respondent.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: September 16, 2026.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[OMB Number 1110–0088]

Agency Information Collection Activities; Proposed eCollection eComments Requested; Extension of a Previously Approved Collection; Title—Lawful Access Data Collection (LADC)

AGENCY: Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Department of Justice (DOJ).

ACTION: 60-Day notice.

SUMMARY: The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division, FBI, DOJ, will be submitting the following information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995.

DATES: Comments are encouraged and will be accepted for 60 days until November 16, 2026.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: If you have additional comments especially on the estimated public burden or associated response time, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions or additional information, please contact Matthew Fancher, Unit Chief, Crime and Law Enforcement Statistics Unit, FBI, CJIS Division, 1000 Custer Hollow Road, Clarksburg, West Virginia 26306, 304.625.4830, email ucr@fbi.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information are encouraged. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the FBI, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Evaluate whether and if so how the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected can be enhanced; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Abstract: The LADC will act as the collection tool for tracking the volume of investigations that are impacted by device and software encryption and provide valuable data to decision makers to help mitigate these lawful access impacts.

Overview of This Information Collection

1. Type of Information Collection: Extension of previously approved collection.

2. The Title of the Form/Collection: Lawful Access Data Collection.

3. The agency number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection: The sponsor is the CJIS Division, FBI, DOJ.

4. Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as the obligation to respond: Affected Public federal, state, county, city, tribal, and territorial law enforcement agencies. The obligation to respond is voluntary and at the discretion of the contributing agency.

5. An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: Due to limited participation and limited data reported, the number of respondents for the LADC is based on estimates from initial usability testing.

The estimated time per response is 3 minutes, 12 seconds to complete a LADC submission.

CIV estimates that 950,000 respondents will take 3 minutes and 12 seconds to complete the form.

6. An estimate of the total annual burden (in hours) associated with the collection: The total annual burden hours for this collection is 50,667 hours.

CIV estimates total 50,667 burden hours (950000 × 192 seconds)/60/60 = 50,667).

Activity	Number of respondents	Frequency (annually)	Total annual responses	Time per response	Total annual burden (hours)
Ex: Survey (individuals or households)	950,000	50	950,000	3 min. 12 sec	50,667
Unduplicated Totals	950,000		950,000		50,667

7. An estimate of the total annual cost burden associated with the collection, if applicable: According to the cost model provided by the FBI's CJIS Division, Resources Management Section, Fee

Programs Unit (FPU), the following are projections based upon prior collection activity. The cost module does not separate the costs between the two methods of collecting UCR data. The FPU cannot provide an itemized breakdown of separate UCR collections, so provided is a total cost of the FBI's UCR Program and its collection activities.
