N-Cyclohexylbenzothiazole-2-Sulfenamide From the People's Republic of China: Postponement of Preliminary Determination in the Less-Than-Fair-Value Investigation

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

DATES: Applicable September 24, 2026.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Allison Hollander and Caroline Carroll, AD/CVD Operations, Office IX, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482–2805 and (202) 482–4948, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On May 27, 2026, the U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) initiated a less-than-fair-value (LTFV) investigation on imports of N-cyclohexylbenzothiazole-2-sulfenamide (CBS) from the People's Republic of China (China).¹ Currently, the preliminary determination is due no later than October 14, 2026.

Postponement of Preliminary Determination

Section 733(b)(1)(A) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), requires Commerce to issue the preliminary determination in an LTFV investigation within 140 days after the date on which Commerce initiated the investigation. However, section 733(c)(1)(A)(b)(1) of the Act permits Commerce to postpone the preliminary determination until no later than 190 days after the date on which Commerce initiated the investigation if: (A) the petitioner makes a timely request for a postponement; or (B) Commerce concludes that the parties concerned are cooperating, that the investigation is extraordinarily complicated, and that additional time is necessary to make a preliminary determination. Under 19 CFR 351.205(e), the petitioner must submit a request for postponement 25 days or more before the scheduled date of the preliminary determination and must state the reasons for the request. Commerce will grant the request unless it finds compelling reasons to deny the request.

On August 25, 2026, the petitioner² submitted a timely request that Commerce postpone the preliminary determination in the LTFV investigation.³ The petitioner stated that it requests postponement to allow Commerce adequate time to conduct a thorough analysis in this investigation and account for any potential export subsidies calculated in the companion countervailing duty investigation, pursuant to section 772(c) of the Act.⁴

For the reasons stated above and because there are no compelling reasons to deny the request, Commerce, in accordance with section 733(c)(1)(A) of the Act, is postponing the deadline for the preliminary determination by 14 days (i.e., 154 days after the date on which this investigation was initiated). As a result, Commerce will issue its preliminary determination no later than October 28, 2026. In accordance with section 735(a)(1) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.210(b)(1), the deadline for the final determination of this investigation will continue to be 75 days after the date of the preliminary determination, unless postponed at a later date.

Notification to Interested Parties

This notice is issued and published pursuant to section 733(c)(2) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.205(f)(1).

Dated: September 18, 2026.

Steven Presing,

Executive Director for Policy and Negotiations.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) directly sponsors and organizes events, including research-related initiatives, meetings, workshops, presentations, panels, advisory committees, and outreach events. The USPTO routinely registers attendees for these events. This new generic clearance request will allow the USPTO to provide a quick and efficient process for the approval of registration and application forms for USPTO-sponsored events that go beyond what is necessary to register. This also includes one-time miscellaneous forms that are primarily of an administrative nature and are necessary to achieve mission objectives. The information provided to the USPTO will have no effect on an individual’s application for other USPTO programs or benefits.

The USPTO seeks to collect common data from interested respondents such as name, organization, email address, phone number, address, country, state, city or town, special accommodation requests, and how the respondent became aware of the pertinent event or conference. The information will be used by the USPTO to assess attendance, to make logistical arrangements for events such as venue selection and seating, and to enable USPTO staff to adequately prepare and facilitate post-event follow-ups. Additionally, the information will help ensure that participants have an effective, efficient, and satisfying experience with USPTO programs and services. If applicable, the information collection may be used to facilitate respondents’ payment for travel and hotel expenses.

As part of this proposed information collection, the USPTO seeks, when applicable, to receive greater feedback from those respondents participating in USPTO programs. To obtain such feedback, the USPTO may solicit or receive other respondent background information such as their group size, sector experience, and experience with USPTO services. Depending on the topic of the program(s), the USPTO may also ask respondents about topics specific to the nature of the USPTO programs and services.

In addition to hosting events, the USPTO also participates in events organized by outside groups such as universities, trade associations, and businesses. As part of this information collection, the USPTO may use speaker invitation forms, questionnaires, and related items to learn more about these organizations and to determine if they will provide beneficial opportunities for the mission and goals of the agency.

This information collection covers a variety of methods used by the USPTO to register or involve the public in its events and programs. The estimated number of annual responses and burden hours requested in this information collection are based on estimates from other Department of Commerce and USPTO generic clearances. Each specific request for clearance under this generic information collection will detail estimates with the following information: respondent types, number of respondents, number of responses, time per response, burden hours, and associated costs.

II. Method of Collection

Items in this information collection may be submitted electronically, by phone, or in paper form by mail, fax, or hand delivery.
