Notice of Inventory Completion: Nassau County Department of Parks, Recreation, and Museums—Garvies Point Museum and Preserve, Glen Cove, NY

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), the Nassau County Department of Parks, Recreation, and Museums—Garvies Point Museum and Preserve (Garvies Point Museum and Preserve) has completed an inventory of associated funerary objects and has determined that there is a cultural affiliation between the associated funerary objects and Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian organizations in this notice.

DATES: Repatriation of the associated funerary objects in this notice may occur on or after October 30, 2026.

ADDRESSES: Send written requests for repatriation of the associated funerary objects in this notice to Veronica Natale, Garvies Point Museum and Preserve, 50 Barry Drive, Glen Cove, NY 11542, email vnatale@nassaucountyny.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice is published as part of the National Park Service's administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA. The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of the Garvies Point Museum and Preserve, and additional information on the determinations in this notice, including the results of consultation, can be found in its inventory or related records. The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations in this notice.

Abstract of Information Available

The 178 associated funerary objects include sherd, pottery (84) pieces; shell, moon snail (two) pieces; projectile point (one) piece; stone flakes (quartz, 37) and (slate and quartzite, nine); animal bones (19) pieces; and bivalves (26) pieces found in association with pit five, burial two. Provenance: NCM # 140, Archery Range site, The Bronx, NY. Donated to the museum by Edward J. Kaeser, 1971.

Cultural Affiliation

Based on the information available and the results of consultation, cultural affiliation is clearly identified by the information available about the associated funerary objects described in this notice.

Determinations

The Garvies Point Museum and Preserve has determined that:

- The 178 objects described in this notice are reasonably believed to have been placed intentionally with or near individual human remains at the time of death or later as part of the death rite or ceremony.
- There is a connection between the associated funerary objects described in this notice and the Delaware Nation, Oklahoma; Delaware Tribe of Indians; and the Stockbridge Munsee Community, Wisconsin.

Requests for Repatriation

Written requests for repatriation of the associated funerary objects in this notice must be sent to the authorized representative identified in this notice under ADDRESSES. Requests for repatriation may be submitted by:

1. Any one or more of the Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian organizations identified in this notice.
2. Any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice who shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the requestor is a lineal descendant or an Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization with cultural affiliation.

Repatriation of the associated funerary objects described in this notice to a requestor may occur on or after October 30, 2026. If competing requests for repatriation are received, the Garvies Point Museum and Preserve must determine the most appropriate requestor prior to repatriation. Requests for joint repatriation of the associated funerary objects are considered a single request and not competing requests. The Garvies Point Museum and Preserve is responsible for sending a copy of this notice to the Indian Tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations identified in this notice and any other consulting parties.

Authority: Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act, 25 U.S.C. 3003, and the implementing regulations, 43 CFR 10.10.

Dated: September 24, 2026.

Notice of Intended Repatriation: California State University, Sacramento, Sacramento, CA

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), the California State University, Sacramento intends to repatriate certain cultural items that meet the definition of objects of cultural patrimony and that have a cultural affiliation with the Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian organizations in this notice.

DATES: Repatriation of the cultural items in this notice may occur on or after October 30, 2026.

ADDRESSES: Send additional, written requests for repatriation of the cultural items in this notice to Dr. Mark R. Wheeler, Senior Advisor to President Luke Wood, California State University, Sacramento, 6000 J Street Sacramento, CA 95819, email mark.wheeler@csus.edu.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice is published as part of the National Park Service's administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA. The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of the California State University, Sacramento, and additional information on the determinations in this notice, including the results of consultation, can be found in the summary or related records. The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations in this notice.

Abstract of Information Available

A total of 8,593 cultural items have been requested for repatriation. The 8,593 objects of cultural patrimony include flaked and ground stones; floral and faunal remains; historic materials; soil and floatation samples; thermally altered rocks; unmodified stones; modified bones, stones, and shells; pigments; and uncatalogued materials. An unknown number of unidentified cultural items may be missing from the collections, which may include other categories of items. The objects of cultural patrimony are from sites in northern Tehama County and include CA-TEH-280, CA-TEH-301, CA-TEH-313, CA-TEH-315, CA-TEH-316, CA-TEH-320, CA-TEH-374, and Unknown locations under accession 81–30; CA–TEH–307, CA–TEH–D66, CA–TEH–Buckhorn Gulch, and Unknown locations under accession 81–79; CA–TEH–330 under accessions 81–9 and 81–30; CA–TEH–350, CA–TEH–387, CA–TEH–412, CA–TEH–414, CA–TEH–415, CA–TEH–465, and Unknown locations under accession 81–9; CA–TEH–574 under accession 81–CSUS–101; CA–TEH–727 under accession 81–487; CA–TEH–1211 under accession 81–143; CA–TEH–1232 under accession 81–144; CA–TEH–1264 under accession 81–145; CA–TEH–1621 under accession 81–464; CA–TEH–K–4 under accession 81–465; CA–TEH–Mosquito Site under accession 81–487; CA–TEH–Deer Creek under accession 81–4; CA–TEH–Wild Cat Creek under accession 81–49; CA–TEH–Unknown under accession 81–CSUS–365; and CA–TEH–Unknown under accession 81–486. Most sites were investigated in the 1960s–1980s by former faculty and students affiliated with the California State University, Sacramento. Some sites have no known records on file pertaining to the investigations conducted. The California State University, Sacramento is unaware of any treatment of the objects of cultural patrimony with pesticides, preservatives, or other substances that represent a potential hazard to the objects or to persons handling the objects.

Determinations

The California State University, Sacramento has determined that:

- The 8,593 objects of cultural patrimony described in this notice have ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to the Native American group, including any constituent sub-group (such as a band, clan, lineage, ceremonial society, or other subdivision), according to the Native American traditional knowledge of an Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.

- There is a connection between the cultural items described in this notice and the Paskenta Band of Nomlaki Indians of California.

Requests for Repatriation

Additional, written requests for repatriation of the cultural items in this notice must be sent to the authorized representative identified in this notice under ADDRESSES. Requests for repatriation may be submitted by any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice who shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the requestor is a lineal descendant or a culturally affiliated Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.

Repatriation of the cultural items in this notice to a requestor may occur on or after October 30, 2026. If competing requests for repatriation are received, the California State University, Sacramento must determine the most appropriate requestor prior to repatriation. Requests for joint repatriation of the cultural items are considered a single request and not competing requests. The California State University, Sacramento is responsible for sending a copy of this notice to the Indian Tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations identified in this notice and to any other consulting parties.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, (PRA, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) and 5 CFR 1320.8(d)(1), all information collections require approval under the PRA. As part of our continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burdens, we invite the public and other Federal agencies to comment on new, proposed, revised, and continuing collections of information. This helps us assess the impact of our information collection requirements and minimize the public's reporting burden. It also helps the public understand our information collection requirements and provide the requested data in the desired format.

A Federal Register notice with a 60-day public comment period soliciting comments on this collection of information was published on May 13, 2026 (91 FR 27076). No comments were received.

We are especially interested in public comment addressing the following:

(1) Whether or not the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether or not the information will have practical utility.

(2) The accuracy of our estimate of the burden for this collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used.

(3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected.

(4) How might the agency minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology (e.g., permitting electronic submission of response).

Comments that you submit in response to this notice are a matter of public record. We will include or summarize each comment in our request to OMB to approve this ICR. Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal
