Most sites were investigated in the 1960s–1980s by former faculty and students affiliated with the California State University, Sacramento. Some sites have no known records on file pertaining to the investigations conducted. The California State University, Sacramento is unaware of any treatment of the objects of cultural patrimony with pesticides, preservatives, or other substances that represent a potential hazard to the objects or to persons handling the objects.

Determinations

The California State University, Sacramento has determined that:

- The 8,593 objects of cultural patrimony described in this notice have ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to the Native American group, including any constituent sub-group (such as a band, clan, lineage, ceremonial society, or other subdivision), according to the Native American traditional knowledge of an Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.
- There is a connection between the cultural items described in this notice and the Paskenta Band of Nomlaki Indians of California.

Requests for Repatriation

Additional, written requests for repatriation of the cultural items in this notice must be sent to the authorized representative identified in this notice under ADDRESSES. Requests for repatriation may be submitted by any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice who shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the requestor is a lineal descendant or a culturally affiliated Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.

Repatriation of the cultural items in this notice to a requestor may occur on or after October 30, 2026. If competing requests for repatriation are received, the California State University, Sacramento must determine the most appropriate requestor prior to repatriation. Requests for joint repatriation of the cultural items are considered a single request and not competing requests. The California State University, Sacramento is responsible for sending a copy of this notice to the Indian Tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations identified in this notice and to any other consulting parties.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, (PRA, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) and 5 CFR 1320.8(d)(1), all information collections require approval under the PRA. As part of our continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burdens, we invite the public and other Federal agencies to comment on new, proposed, revised, and continuing collections of information. This helps us assess the impact of our information collection requirements and minimize the public's reporting burden. It also helps the public understand our information collection requirements and provide the requested data in the desired format.

A Federal Register notice with a 60-day public comment period soliciting comments on this collection of information was published on May 13, 2026 (91 FR 27076). No comments were received.

We are especially interested in public comment addressing the following:

- (1) Whether or not the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether or not the information will have practical utility.
- (2) The accuracy of our estimate of the burden for this collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used.
- (3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected.

(4) How might the agency minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology (e.g., permitting electronic submission of response).

Comments that you submit in response to this notice are a matter of public record. We will include or summarize each comment in our request to OMB to approve this ICR. Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Abstract: Federal law—specifically Section 4 of the Archaeological Resources Protection Act of 1979 and Section 3 of the Antiquities Act of 1906—allows individuals and organizations to request permission to study, dig, or remove archaeological materials from public or Indian lands. Anyone who is not part of the National Park Service (NPS) must obtain a permit before doing any archaeological work on NPS lands, even if the work is part of another regulatory process. This includes activities such as excavation, shovel testing, coring, walking surveys (with or without collecting artifacts), underwater archaeology, photogrammetry, and documenting rock art

Researchers from universities, museums, businesses, or other organizations must submit Form DI-1926, the Application for Permit for Archeological Investigations, before starting fieldwork. Applicants must also provide a statement of work, information about their qualifications and past experience, résumés for key project staff, written consent from State or Tribal authorities when required, documentation from the facility that will care for the collections, and a detailed project schedule. State or Tribal authorities when required, authorization identifying the curation facility, and a detailed schedule of all project activities.

Once a permit is issued, permit holders must submit preliminary, annual, and final reports during the course of the project.

Title of Collection: Archeology Permit Applications and Reports.

OMB Control Number: 1024-0037.

Form Number: Form DI-1926 and DI-1926a.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Respondents/Affected Public:

Individuals or organizations wishing to excavate or remove archeological resources from public or Indian lands.

Total Estimated Number of Annual Respondents: 180.

Total Estimated Number of Annual Responses: 180.

Estimated Completion Time per Response: Varies; up to 7.5 hours, depending on activity.

Total Estimated Number of Annual Burden Hours: 1,306.

Respondent's Obligation: Required to obtain or retain a benefit.

Frequency of Collection: On occasion.

Total Estimated Annual Non hour Burden Cost: None.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The authority for this action is the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.).

Notice of Inventory Completion: California State University, Sacramento, Sacramento, CA

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), the California State University, Sacramento has completed an inventory of human remains and associated funerary objects and has determined that there is a cultural affiliation between the human remains and associated funerary objects and Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian organizations in this notice.

DATES: Repatriation of the human remains and associated funerary objects in this notice may occur on or after October 30, 2026.

ADDRESSES: Send written requests for repatriation of the human remains and associated funerary objects in this notice to Dr. Mark R. Wheeler, Senior Advisor to President Luke Wood, California State University, Sacramento, 6000 J Street Sacramento, CA 95819, email mark.wheeler@csus.edu.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice is published as part of the National Park Service's administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA. The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of the California State University, Sacramento, and additional information on the determinations in this notice, including the results of consultation, can be found in its inventory or related records. The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations in this notice.

Abstract of Information Available

Human remains representing at least 53 individuals have been identified. The 35,141 associated funerary objects include baked clay objects; faunal and floral remains; flaked and ground stones; historic materials; perishable materials; modified bones, shells, and stones; thermally altered rocks; pigments; unmodified stones; soil, column, and geologic samples; ash; and unidentified objects. An unknown number of unidentified cultural items may be missing from the collection, which may include other categories of items. The human remains and associated funerary objects originate from several sites in northern Tehama County and include CA-TEH-387 (accession 81-137), CA-TEH-748 (accession 81-136), CA-TEH-1196 (accession 81-141), CA-TEH-1197 (accession 81-142), CA-TEH-Frog Site (accession 81-487), CA-TEH-300 (accession 81-30), CA-TEH-328 (accession 81-30 and 81-3), CA-TEH-331 (accession 81-8, 81-30), CA-TEH-318 (accession 81-30), CA-TEH-Cone Grove (accession 81-460), and CA-TEH-Unknown (Massacre; accession 81-9). These sites were investigated in the 1960s-1980s by former faculty and students affiliated with the California State University, Sacramento. The California State University, Sacramento is unaware of any treatment of the objects of cultural patrimony with pesticides, preservatives, or other substances that represent a potential hazard to the objects or to persons handling the objects.

Cultural Affiliation

Based on the information available and the results of consultation cultural affiliation is clearly identified by the information available about the human remains and associated funerary objects described in this notice.

Determinations

The California State University, Sacramento has determined that:

- The human remains described in this notice represent the physical remains of at least 53 individuals of Native American ancestry.
- The 35,141 objects described in this notice are reasonably believed to have been placed intentionally with or near individual human remains at the time of death or later as part of the death rite or ceremony.
- There is a connection between the human remains and associated funerary
