Agency Information Collection Activities; Proposed eCollection eComments Requested; Extension of a Currently Approved Collection; Title—Monthly Return of Arson Offenses Known to Law Enforcement

AGENCY: FBI, Department of Justice (DOJ).

ACTION: 60-Day notice.

SUMMARY: The DOJ, FBI, Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division, is submitting the following information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget for review and approval in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) of 1995.

DATES: DOJ encourages public comment and will accept input until December 7, 2026.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: If you have additional comments especially on the estimated public burden or associated response time, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions or additional information, please contact Matthew B. Fancher, Crime and Law Enforcement Statistics Unit Chief, FBI, CJIS Division, Module D–1, 1000 Custer Hollow Road, Clarksburg, West Virginia 26306, 304–625–4830.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information are encouraged. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

➤ Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the FBI, including whether the information will have practical utility;

➤ Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

➤ Evaluate whether, and if so, how the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected can be enhanced; and

➤ Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology (e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses).

Abstract: Under 34 United States Code 41303, Uniform Federal Crime Reporting Act of 1988; the Anti-Arson

Act of 1982; and FBI, General Functions, 28 Code of Federal Regulations § 0.85 (f); this collection requests the number of reported arson offenses from federal, state, local, tribal, and territorial LEAs in order for the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program to serve as the national clearinghouse for the collection and dissemination of arson data and to publish these statistics.

Overview of This Information Collection

1. Type of Information Collection: Extension of a currently approved collection.

2. The Title of the Form/Collection: Monthly Return of Arson Offenses Known to Law Enforcement.

3. The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection: The form number is 1–725. The applicable component within DOJ is the CJIS Division in the FBI.

4. Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Primary: Federal, state, local, tribal, and territorial law enforcement agencies (LEAs).

5. An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: The estimated number of LEAs submitting arson data to the UCR Program monthly is 3,671. The estimated time it takes for an average respondent to respond is 9 minutes.

6. An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: Annually, the estimated 3,671 LEAs submit an estimated 44,052 responses (3,671 LEAs × 12 months = 44,052 responses). Therefore, the estimated annual public burden is 6,607 hours. ([44,052 annual responses × 9 minutes per response]/60 minutes per hour = 6,607 total annual hours.)

7. According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics for 2023, the mean hourly wage of law enforcement officers is $36.80. An estimate of the total annual cost burden associated with the collection: $243,137.06 (6,607 annual hours × $36.80).

TOTAL BURDEN HOURS

Activity	Number of respondents	Frequency (annually)	Total annual responses	Time per response (minutes)	Total annual burden (hours)
UCR Participation Burden Estimation	3,671	12	44,052	9	6,607
Unduplicated Totals	3,761		44,052		6,607

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION

[NARA-2027-001]

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).

ACTION: Notice revising a system of records.

SUMMARY: We propose to revise a system of records in our existing inventory of systems subject to the Privacy Act of 1974. The system is NARA 44, Reasonable Accommodation Request Records. We are updating the new system manager and system location due to organizational changes at the agency. NARA also proposes to expand the system to include requests for reasonable accommodations involving pregnancy or childbirth and the associated authority for collecting this information. Further, NARA proposes to use an internal web-based application and database for some of the records in this system to modernize the agency's receipt, processing, and monitoring reasonable accommodation requests and maintaining the associated records. In this notice, we publish the system of records notice in full for public notice and comment.

DATES: Submit comments on this system of records by November 5, 2026. This revised systems of records, NARA 44, is effective on November 16, 2026 unless we receive comments that necessitate revising the SORN.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments, identified by "SORN NARA 44" by email to regulation_comments@nara.gov. Include "SORN NARA 44" in the subject line of the message.

Instructions: All submissions must include SORN NARA 44 so we can identify what the comment is responding to. We may publish any comments we receive without changes, including any personal information you include.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Courtney Whatley, Agency Accommodation Program Manager, by email at courtney.whatley@nara.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Our Reasonable Accommodation Request Records system of records (NARA 44) includes records of requests, processing, and decisions for reasonable accommodations submitted by current and former NARA employees and applicants. It specifically mentions accommodations for employees and applicants with disabilities and for religious reasons. NARA proposes to expand the system to include requests for reasonable accommodations involving pregnancy or childbirth under the Pregnant Workers Fairness Act (PWFA), Public Law 117-328, and citing this authority for collecting this information. NARA is also updating the new system manager and system location due to organizational changes at the agency. Further, NARA proposes to use an internal web-based application and database for some of the records in this system to modernize the agency's receipt, processing, and monitoring reasonable accommodation requests and maintaining the associated records.

The Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552a) ("Privacy Act"), provides certain safeguards for an individual against an invasion of personal privacy. It requires Federal agencies that disseminate any record of personally identifiable information to do so in a manner that assures the action is for a necessary and lawful purpose, the information is current and accurate for its intended use, and the agency provides adequate safeguards to prevent misuse of such information. NARA intends to follow these principles when transferring information to another agency or individual as a "routine use," including assuring that the information is relevant for the purposes for which it is transferred.
