INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation Nos. 701-TA-771 and 731-TA-1755 (Final)]

Oleoresin Paprika From India; Determinations

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject investigations, the United States International Trade Commission ("Commission") determines, pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 ("the Act"), that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of imports of oleoresin paprika from India,^{2,3} provided for under subheadings 3203.00.80 and 3301.90.10 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that have been found by the U.S. Department of Commerce ("Commerce") to be sold in the United States at less than fair value ("LTFV") and subsidized by the government of India.^{4,5}

Background

The Commission instituted these investigations effective June 25, 2025, following receipt of petitions filed with the Commission and Commerce by Rezolex, Ltd. Co., Las Cruces, New Mexico. The final phase of the investigations was scheduled by the Commission following notification of preliminary determinations by Commerce that imports of oleoresin paprika from India were subsidized within the meaning of section 703(b) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1671b(b)) and sold at LTFV within the meaning of 733(b) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1673b(b)). Notice of the scheduling of the final phase of the Commission's investigations and of a public hearing to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register on April 20, 2026 (91 FR 21016). The Commission conducted its hearing on August 18, 2026. All persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to participate.

¹ The record is defined in § 207.2(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 207.2(f)).

² Commissioner Jason E. Kearns determines that an industry in the United States is threatened with material injury.

³ Commissioner Samuel T. Negatu not participating.

⁴ 91 FR 54302 and 91 FR 54300 (August 21, 2026).

⁵ The Commission also finds that imports subject to Commerce's affirmative critical circumstances determination are not likely to undermine seriously the remedial effect of the countervailing duty order on oleoresin paprika from India.

The Commission made these determinations pursuant to §§ 705(b) and 735(b) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1671d(b) and 19 U.S.C. 1673d(b)). It completed and filed its determinations in these investigations on October 5, 2026. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 5794 (October 2026), entitled Oleoresin Paprika from India: Investigation Nos. 701-TA-771 and 731-TA-1755 (Final).

Overview of This Information Collection

1. Type of information collection:

Revision and reinstatement of a previously approved collection.

2. The title of the form/collection:

Electronic Applications for the Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program.

3. The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the department sponsoring the collection:

There is no agency form number for this collection. The applicable component within the Department of Justice is the Justice Management Division, Office of Adjudication, Recruitment, and Management.

4. Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as the obligation to respond: Affected Public—Individuals. The obligation to respond is voluntary.

5. An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond/reply: The Department anticipates about 180 respondents annually will complete the new request and justification form to apply for participation in the ASLRP annually. It is estimated that each new request (including justification) will take two (2) hours to complete. This includes the time associated with reviewing the instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering the data needed, and completing the request. In addition, we estimate no more than 100 respondents will request renewal of payments by completing a short renewal form. We estimate it takes 30 minutes to gather the necessary data and complete the renewal form.

6. An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: The estimated burden associated with this collection is 410 hours. It is estimated that new applicants will take 2 hours to complete the request form and justification. The burden hours for collecting respondent data, 420 hours, are calculated as follows: 180 new respondents × 2 hours = 360 hours; plus 100 renewing participants × .5 hour = 50 hours.

¹ The Commission's notice of institution and scheduling of preliminary phase antidumping and countervailing duty investigations was titled

"Corrugated Pizza Boxes" in alignment with the title of the petitions filed on September 9, 2026. The Commission is revising the title of its investigations to "Corrugated Die-Cut Cardboard Boxes" to more closely align with Commerce's title.
