

SUNY Cortland. It is unknown when and from where the individuals were removed, but Mr. Petrovsky lived in and primarily excavated in and around Susquehannock lands in the 1970s, so it is believed the individuals were removed from a location in Susquehanna County, PA or Broome or Tioga County, NY. The individuals and their belongings were discovered in the archaeology lab at SUNY Cortland several years after Dr. McDowell-Loudan's retirement, at which time they were moved to a secure location within the SUNY Cortland Sociology/Anthropology Department.
