TABLE 4—REGULATION B VIOLATIONS CITED BY NON-FFIEC AGENCIES ENFORCING ECOA, 2025

Regulation B violations cited in 2025	Agency
12 CFR 1002.9(a)(1)(i); (b)(2): Adverse Action—Failure to provide notice to the applicant 30 days after receiving a completed application concerning the creditor's approval of, counteroffer to, or adverse action on the application in violation of (a)(1)(i); failure to provide sufficient information in an adverse action notification, including the specific reasons for the action taken in violation of (b)(2).	FCA.
12 CFR 1002.13: Failure to request and collect information for monitoring purposes; Failure to obtain information for monitoring purposes.	FCA.

The AMS, SEC, Office of Aviation Consumer Protection (OACP), and the SBA reported that they received no complaints based on ECOA or Regulation B in 2025. The FTC is an enforcement agency and does not conduct compliance examinations.

8.1.4 Referrals to the DOJ

The agencies assigned enforcement authority under section 704 of ECOA must refer a matter to DOJ when there is reason to believe that a creditor has engaged in a pattern or practice of lending discrimination in violation of ECOA.[72] They also may refer other potential ECOA violations to DOJ.[73] In 2025, NCUA made four referrals to DOJ involving violations of ECOA or Regulation B. Two referrals involved discrimination based on receipt of public assistance, one involved discrimination based on age and marital status, and one involved discrimination based on age alone. The OCC made one referral to DOJ involving violations of ECOA, Regulation B, and the FHA. The matter involved discrimination on the basis of race, color, or national origin in mortgage lending.

In 2025, the CFPB, FDIC, and FRB did not refer any ECOA matters to DOJ.

9. Statutory Reporting on HMDA

Pursuant to HMDA, the CFPB in consultation with HUD, must report annually on the utility of HMDA's requirement that covered lenders report the number and dollar amount of certain mortgage loans and applications grouped according to census tract, income level, racial characteristics, age, and gender.[74]

The CFPB is currently assessing the utility of this data and expects to publish a separate report to Congress in late 2026.

SUMMARY: As part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork burdens, and as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA), the U.S. Election Assistance Commission (EAC) gives notice that it is requesting from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) an extension of the previously approved information collection OMB Control Number 3265–0026 EAC Progress Report (EAC–PR).

DATES: Comments must be received by 5 p.m. Eastern on Wednesday, December 9, 2026.

ADDRESSES: Written comments and recommendations for the proposed information collection should be sent within 30 days of publication of this notice to https://www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain. Find this particular information collection by selecting ''Currently under 30-day Review—Open for Public Comments'' or by using the search function.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For further information, please contact Risa Garza, Office of Grants Management, Election Assistance Commission, by email at: grants@eac.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title and OMB Number: EAC Progress Report (EAC–PR); OMB Control Number: 3265–0026.

Purpose: This proposed information collection was previously published in the Federal Register on August 3, 2026 (91 FR, pp. 48847–48848) and allowed 60 days for public comment. The purpose of this notice is to allow an additional 30 days for public comment from all interested individuals and organizations.

The EAC–PR is employed for both interim and final progress reports for grants issued under HAVA authority. This format contains no changes to the report or instructions since the approved standard request in November 2023. The PR directly benefits award recipients by making it easier for them to administer federal grant and cooperative agreement programs through standardization of the types of information required in progress reporting, thereby reducing their administrative effort and costs.

The requirement for grantees to report on performance is the OMB grants policy. Specific citations are contained inCode of Federal Regulations TITLE 2, PART 200—UNIFORM ADMINISTRATIVE REQUIREMENTS, COST PRINCIPLES, AND AUDIT REQUIREMENTS FOR FEDERAL AWARDS.

Public Comments

Comments are invited on (a) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected from respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and (b) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.
