Type of Request: Regular submission with revision to a currently approved collection.

Number of Respondents: 100,020.

Average Hours per Response: 10 minutes.

Burden Hours: 34,133 (annual).

Needs and Uses: The International Trade Administration's (ITA) is mandated by Congress to broaden and deepen the U.S. exporter base and to attract inward foreign direct investment. ITA accomplishes this by providing counseling, programs and services to help U.S. organizations conduct business globally and to be successful in overseas markets. This information collection package enables ITA to provide appropriate global trade services to U.S. businesses and international buyers.

ITA offers a variety of services to enable clients to begin exporting and trading globally or to expand existing export and global trade efforts. Clients may learn about available services from business related entities such as the National Association of Manufacturers, Federal Express, State Economic Development offices, the internet or word of mouth. ITA provides a standard set of services to assist clients with identifying potential overseas partners, establishing meeting programs with appropriate overseas business contacts and providing due diligence reports on potential overseas business partners. ITA also provides other global trade related services considered to be of a ''customized nature'' because they do not fit into the standard set of services but are driven by unique business needs of individual clients.

The dissemination of international market information and potential business opportunities for U.S. companies interested and actively conducting business globally are critical components of the ITA's global trade assistance programs and services. U.S. companies can conveniently access and indicate their interest in services by completing the appropriate forms through various methods, including via a website (e.g. trade.gov), web-based survey or form links, or paper-based forms.

Affected Public: Business or other for-profit organizations; Not-for-profit institutions; State, Local, or Tribal government.

Frequency: On occasion.

Respondent's Obligation: Voluntary.

Legal Authority: Public Law 15 U.S.C. et seq and 15 U.S.C. 171 et seq.

Mattresses From Cambodia, Malaysia, Serbia, Thailand, the Republic of Türkiye, the People's Republic of China, and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam: Continuation of Antidumping Duty and Countervailing Duty Orders

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: As a result of the determinations by the U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) and the U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC) that revocation of the antidumping duty (AD) orders on mattresses from Cambodia, Malaysia, Serbia, Thailand, the Republic of Türkiye, and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam and the countervailing duty (CVD) order on mattresses from the People's Republic of China would likely lead to the continuation or recurrence of dumping or countervailable subsidies, and material injury to an industry in the United States, Commerce is publishing a notice of continuation of these AD and CVD orders.

DATES: Applicable November 2, 2026.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Katerina Katsiadas, AD/CVD Operations, Office VIII, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482–4929.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On May 14, 2021, Commerce published in the Federal Register the AD orders on mattresses from Cambodia, Malaysia, Serbia, Thailand, the Republic of Türkiye, and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam, and the CVD order on mattresses from the People's Republic of China.[1] On April 1, 2026, the ITC instituted,[2] and
