SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice informs the public that HUD is seeking approval from OMB for the information collection described in Section A.

A. Overview of Information Collection

Title of Information Collection: Youth Homeless Systems Improvement (YHSI).

OMB Approval Number: 2506–0219.

Type of Request: Renewal.

Form Number: SF–424 Application for Federal Assistance.

Description of the need for the information and proposed use:

Congress appropriated funds to the Department of Housing and Urban Development in FY2022–FY2026 to competitively award funds to selected communities to support them in establishing and implementing a response system for youth homelessness or for improving their existing response system. The YHSI projects focus on systems change to improve the capacity and increase collaboration with youth in the community; establish partnership with other youth-serving systems; connect housing and homelessness service providers to education, job training, and employment skills organizations; improve the centralized or coordinated assessment system also known as the Coordinated Entry Systems (CES); and improve data collection and use between systems that work with at-risk and homeless youth. This information collection revision is to monitor the progress of funded YHSI projects.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 86 YHSI grant recipients.

Estimated Number of Responses: 172.

Frequency of Response: Biannual.

Average Hours per Response: 2.

Total Estimated Burdens: $22,482.12.

B. Solicitation of Public Comment

This notice is soliciting comments from members of the public and affected parties concerning the collection of information described in Section A on the following:

(1) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) The accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information;

(3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond; including through the use of appropriate automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

HUD encourages interested parties to submit comment in response to these questions.

Endangered and Threatened Wildlife and Plants; Initiation of 5-Year Status Reviews for 81 Southeastern Species

AGENCY: Fish and Wildlife Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of initiation of status reviews.

SUMMARY: We, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, are initiating 5-year status reviews under the Endangered Species Act of 1973, as amended, for 81 species (ESA; 16 U.S.C. 1531 et seq.). A 5-year status review is based on an assessment of the best scientific and commercial data available at the time of the review. We ask the public to submit any new information relevant to the status of any of the species listed in this notice or their habitats.

DATES: These status reviews were announced on November 9, 2026.

ADDRESSES: We will accept new information about these or any listed species at any time. For instructions on how and where to submit information for a species named in these status reviews, see table 1 in the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section. Additional information on status reviews is available at https://www.fws.gov/project/five-year-status-reviews.
