OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

Notice of Modification of Section 301 Action: China's Targeting of the Maritime, Logistics, and Shipbuilding Sectors for Dominance

AGENCY: Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR).

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: To allow for further discussion with China regarding the acts, policies, and practices at issue in this investigation, the U.S. Trade Representative (Trade Representative) is modifying the action taken in this investigation to further suspend that action for two months, until January 10, 2027.

DATES: November 9, 2026: The actions taken in this investigation are further suspended through 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on January 9, 2027.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Philip Butler, Deputy Assistant U.S. Trade Representative for Monitoring and Enforcement; Thomas Au, Senior Counsel for Industrial Policy; or David Salkeld, Associate General Counsel at (202) 395–5725.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

For background on the proceedings in this investigation, please see the prior notices issued in this investigation, including 89 FR 29424 (April 22, 2024), 90 FR 8089 (January 23, 2025), 90 FR 10843 (February 27, 2025), 90 FR 17114 (April 23, 2025) (April 23, 2025 FRN), 90 FR 24856 (June 12, 2025), 90 FR 48320 (October 16, 2025) (October 16, 2025 FRN); 90 FR 50762 (November 10, 2025) (November 10, 2025 FRN), 90 FR 50947 (November 13, 2025) (November 13, 2025 FRN), and 91 FR 67388 (October 26, 2026) (October 26, 2026 FRN).

On April 17, 2025, pursuant to sections 301(b), 301(c), and 304(a) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (Trade Act) (19 U.S.C. 2411(b), 2411(c), and 2414(a)), and subsequently on October 16, 2025, pursuant to section 307(a) (19 U.S.C. 2417(a)), following consideration of public comments, as well as consultations with advisory committees and the Section 301 Committee, the Trade Representative determined to take action in this investigation, including fees on certain maritime transport services and duties on ship-to-shore (STS) cranes and other cargo handling equipment of China. See April 23, 2025 FRN; October 16, 2025 FRN (modifying certain aspects of the actions in the investigation).

On November 1, 2025, the White House announced a historic trade and economic deal reached between President Trump and President Xi of China. The White House, Fact Sheet: President Donald J. Trump Strikes Deal on Economic and Trade Relations with China (Nov. 1, 2025), https://www.whitehouse.gov/fact-sheets/2025/11/fact-sheet-president-donald-j-trump-strikes-deal-on-economic-and-trade-relations-with-china/. Pursuant to this deal, the United States would suspend for one year, beginning on November 10, 2025, the responsive actions taken in this investigation. This period would allow the United States to negotiate with China pursuant to Section 301 regarding the issues raised in this investigation as well as to continue U.S. domestic efforts and discussions with key allies and partners on revitalizing American shipbuilding.

Following consideration of public comments and advice from the Section 301 Committee, the Trade Representative, at the specific direction of the President, suspended the actions in this investigation from November 10, 2025 through November 9, 2026. See November 13, 2025 FRN.

Discussions with China regarding the acts, policies, and practices at issue in this investigation are ongoing. In this light, and in accordance with Section 307(a)(2) of the Trade Act, on October 23, 2026, the Trade Representative proposed to further suspend the action in this investigation for two months, until January 10, 2027. The Trade Representative requested comments from any interested person regarding the proposal to further suspend the responsive actions. See October 26, 2026 FRN.

II. Determination To Modify the Action

Section 307(a)(1) of the Trade Act authorizes the Trade Representative to modify any action being taken under Section 301, subject to the specific direction of the President, including if such action being taken under Section 301(b) is no longer appropriate.

The circumstances that warranted the initial suspension continue to exist, and to allow for further discussion with China regarding the issues in this investigation, and at the direction of the President, the Trade Representative has determined that the action taken on
