SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On September 15, 2026, the OCC, Board, FDIC, and NCUA (collectively, the agencies) published in the Federal Register a proposed interagency guidance and request for comment on third-party risk management. The proposed guidance would reflect the agencies' supervisory experience and lessons learned through examining banking organizations' third-party risk management practices and would discuss the potential benefits that may accrue when a banking organization aligns its third-party risk management practices in relation to the reasonably assessed risk levels specific to each of its third-party relationships, among other things.[1] The proposed guidance stated that the comment period would close on November 16, 2026. The agencies have received a request to extend the comment period. An extension of the comment period will provide additional opportunity for the public to consider the proposal and prepare comments. Therefore, the agencies are extending the end of the comment period for the proposal from November 16, 2026, to December 16, 2026.

Jonathan V. Gould,

Comptroller of the Currency.

By order of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, acting through the Secretary of the Board under delegated authority.

Benjamin W. McDonough,

Secretary of the Board.
