general public and federal agencies an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information before submitting them to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for final approval. This program helps to ensure requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements can be properly assessed.

ODEP is soliciting comments regarding a new generic information collection. The collection would allow for a quick review process by OMB of a series of 8 to 20 short surveys relevant to the contracts and grants administered by ODEP. The surveys and interviews would cover a variety of issues, including but not limited to governance, administration, funding, service design and delivery, and participant experiences. Depending on the purpose for collecting the information, these may be conducted with state workforce agencies, local workforce development boards, American Job Centers, partner programs, other entities involved in activities relevant to ODEP, and customers of ODEP contractors and grantees. Each survey instrument will be designed on an ad hoc basis and will focus on topics of pressing policy or research interest. Examples of broad topic areas include but are not limited to:

- Effectiveness of technical assistance,
- Customer satisfaction,
- State and local management information systems,
- New processes and procedures, and
- Integration and coordination with other programs.

ODEP is seeking this new collection to be able to obtain quick approval to conduct surveys so that it can collect and analyze, on a timely basis, information on various programs, practices, or problems, and to meet its obligations to develop high quality policy, research, and technical assistance. This generic information collection will permit publication of results obtained from these surveys. ODEP will request information in these surveys that is not otherwise available. Other research and evaluation efforts, including long-range evaluations, take many years for data to be gathered and analyzed. Administrative information, including quarterly or annual data reported by states and local areas, do not provide sufficient information on key operational practices, staff, or participant perspectives, and new or rapidly emerging issues. ODEP will make every effort to coordinate the quick turnaround surveys with other data collections in ODEP or other parts of the Department of Labor, in order to ease the burden on local, state, and other respondents, to avoid duplication, and to fully explore how data and information from each study can be used to inform other studies. Information from the quick turnaround surveys will thus complement but not duplicate other ODEP reporting requirements or evaluation studies.

II. Desired Focus of Comments

ODEP is soliciting comments concerning the proposed information collection related to Office of Disability Employment Policy Quick Turnaround Surveys. ODEP is particularly interested in comments that:

- Evaluate the accuracy of the Agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, (e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses).

III. Current Actions

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: DOL, as part of continuing efforts to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a pre-clearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information before submitting them to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for final approval. This program helps to ensure requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements can be properly assessed.

The SQSP is a comprehensive performance management system implemented in 1995 for the UI program and the principal vehicle that state UI agencies use to plan, record, and manage program improvement efforts. SQSP also serves as the grant document through which states receive Federal UI administrative funding. SQSP links program performance with the budget and planning process. The SQSP package also includes key reports associated with workload and cost detail from states used to determine administrative funding in excess of initial funding allocations made to each state.

The SQSP, with its State Plan Narrative, Corrective Action Plans (CAPs), and Integrity Action Plan, represents the state's formal plan and schedule for improving performance. States will continue to use the State Plan Narrative to provide a general summary of the UI program in the state. Actions planned to correct deficiencies for Secretary Standards, Core Measures, and UI programs are expected to be addressed in CAPs. Each SWA is required to submit one CAP for each deficiency. Based on the most recent activity during the FY 2027 SQSP process, a total of 750 CAPs were submitted from SWAs. This is a decrease of 124 CAPs from the last OMB approval cycle and represents a significant decline in the burden associated with the SQSP information collection. ETA proposes extending this collection with a revision due to the change in estimated burden.

The Secretary of Labor is authorized to provide funds to administer the UI program and to govern the expenditures of those funds. The SQSP is a major part of the Department's program oversight and governance and administrative funding distribution process. The Social Security Act sections 302, and 303(a)(8) and (9), authorize this information collection.

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless it is approved by OMB under the PRA and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6.

Interested parties are encouraged to provide comments to the contact shown in the ADDRESSES section. Comments must be written to receive consideration, and they will be summarized and included in the request for OMB approval of the final ICR. In order to help ensure appropriate consideration, comments should mention OMB control number 1205–0132.

Submitted comments will also be a matter of public record for this ICR and posted on the internet, without redaction. DOL encourages commenters not to include personally identifiable information, confidential business data, or other sensitive statements/information in any comments.

DOL is particularly interested in comments that:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the Agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, (e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses).
