I. Background
II. Ordering Paragraphs

I. Background

This complaint stems from a dispute between the Postal Service and Complainant regarding delivery of mail to his home. Complainant asserts three causes of action in his Complaint. Specifically, Count I alleges that the Postal Service has breached a settlement agreement between the parties. Counts II alleges that the Postal Service violated 39 U.S.C. 403(1) by failing to maintain an efficient system of sorting and delivering the mail. Count III alleges that the Postal Service violated 39 U.S.C. 403(c) by discriminating against him in the delivery of his mail.

After determining that Complainant has raised sufficient issues of material law and fact as to Count III, the Commission appointed a presiding officer to preside over the conduct of the proceedings, including but not limited to scheduling, discovery, potential hearings, and briefing in this matter. The Presiding Officer therefore enumerates the provisions that will govern discovery as well as other related procedures. The Presiding Officer also denies certain procedural motions as moot or premature.

II. Ordering Paragraphs

It is ordered:

1. The deadline to file a notice of intervention pursuant to 39 CFR 3010.142 is December 1, 2026.

3. The United States Postal Service's Motion to Strike Complainant's Premature Discovery, filed September 25, 2026, is denied.

6. This Order, or an abstract thereof, shall be published in the Federal Register.

Further classification changes are summarized as follows:

- The Postal Service will apply a flat 11 percent fuel surcharge to domestic Priority Mail Express, Priority Mail, Parcel Select, and USPS Ground Advantage packages. Initially, the fuel surcharge will be static but eventually the Postal Service intends that it will adjust the surcharge on a weekly basis, based on average fuel prices reported by the Energy Information Administration (EIA). The new, permanent surcharge is set to take effect on the expiration date of the current time limited price change that has been in place since April 26, 2026.
- The Postal Service will introduce a repricing fee for postage overpayments and underpayments caused by inaccurate dimensions or weight. For an underpayment, the fee will equal 20 percent of the unpaid amount and will be added to the postage due. For an overpayment, 20 percent will be deducted from the refundable amount, subject to Postal Service refund rules.
- The Noncompliance Fee will be renamed the Dimension and Weight Noncompliance Fee and will apply only when dimensions or weight are missing.
- The proposed changes to Premium Forwarding Service clarify that the online enrollment fee is annual. The Postal Service will also add Priority Mail Express as an option under Premium Forwarding Service Residential (PFSR) and Premium Forwarding Service Commercial (PFSC) and add Priority Mail Flat Rate Envelopes, Priority Mail Sacks, Priority Mail Express Flat Rate Envelopes, and Priority Mail Express Sacks options for PFSC. PFSC customers may control reshipment frequency for periods of up to 12 months.
- The Postal Service will introduce a Shipping Label Noncompliance Fee under Domestic Competitive products for incorrect barcode symbology or constructs.
- The Postal Service will expand the number of Price Groups for Priority Mail Express International (PMEI) Flat Rate Envelope from 8 to 20 groups and the number of Price Groups for Priority Mail International (PMI) Flat Rate Envelopes and Boxes from 8 to 20 groups.
- The Postal Service will add USPS Delivered Duty Paid (DDP) as an optional feature for International Priority Airmail (IPA) to more accurately reflect timing, payment and procedures related to USPS DDP.
- The Postal Service will revise the country group assignments for PMEI, PMI, IPA, and First-Class Package International Service (FCPIS) in, and to the format of, Part D Country Price Lists for International Mail so that it can price these products more effectively.
