DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

Fiscal Year 2026 Senior Executive Service Performance Review Boards

AGENCY: Department of Homeland Security.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice updates the November 4, 2026 notice announcing the appointment of members of the Fiscal Year (FY) 2026 Senior Executive Service (SES) Performance Review Boards (PRBs) for the Department of Homeland Security (DHS).

DATES: This Notice is applicable as of November 24, 2026.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Christian Fajardo, Human Resources Specialist, Office of the Chief Human Capital Officer, christian.fajardo@hq.dhs.gov, 771–200–0392.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice updates the notice published on November 4, 2026 at 91 FR 69568, to add one name to the FY 2026 SES PRBs for the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). The purpose of the PRBs is to make recommendations to the appointing authority (i.e., Agency Head) on the performance of senior executives (career and limited term appointees), including recommendations on performance ratings, performance-based pay adjustments, and performance awards. The PRBs will also make recommendations on the performance of Transportation Security Executive Service, Senior-Level, and Scientific and Professional employees. To make its recommendations, the PRBs will review performance appraisals, initial summary ratings, any response by the employee, and any higher-level official's recommendation.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 4314(c) and 5 CFR 430.311, each agency must establish one or more PRBs to make recommendations to the appointing authority (i.e., Agency Head) on the performance of its senior executives. Each PRB must consist of three or more members. More than one-half of the membership of a PRB must be SES career appointees when reviewing appraisals and recommending performance-based pay adjustments or performance awards for career appointees. Composition of the PRB will be determined from among the individuals listed below:
