Agricultural Marketing Service

Title: National Bioengineered Food Disclosure Standard.

OMB Control Number: 0581–0315.

Summary of Collection: The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) administers the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (Title II of the Act of August 14, 1946). Public Law 114–216 amended the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946, directing the Secretary of Agriculture to establish the National Bioengineered Food Disclosure Standard (7 CFR 66) for disclosing certain foods that are bioengineered or contain bioengineered ingredients. The final rule (National Bioengineered Food Disclosure Standard [7 CFR 66]) fulfils USDA's need to establish requirements and procedures to carry out the new standard. Public Law 114–216 also addressed Federal preemption of State and local genetic engineering labeling requirements and specifies that certification of food under USDA's National Organic Program (7 CFR 205) were considered sufficient to make claims about the absence of bioengineering in the food. AMS gathered industry input and conducted rulemaking on the National Bioengineered Food Disclosure Standards.

Need and Use of the Information: The audit process involves access to records at the entity's place of business. AMS would examine the records during normal business hours to verify compliance with the standard's disclosure requirements. Under § 66.304(c), if an entity fails to provide AMS access to records, AMS would determine that the entity did not comply and would make the determination public. Companies would know the requirements through a list that AMS will maintain containing bioengineered crops and foods that may be produced in other countries. As set forth in § 66.300, recordkeeping applies to records for food on the list of bioengineered foods. As set forth in § 66.302(a)(3), records would have to be maintained for at least two years after the food's distribution for retail sale.

Description of Respondents: Business or other for-profit; Not for-profit institutions.

Number of Respondents: 155,098.

Frequency of Responses: Recordkeeping; Annually.

Total Burden Hours: 353,952.
