Key Tronic Corporation; Spokane, Washington and Key Tronic Southwest, El Paso, Texas and Las Cruces, New Mexico; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on March 26, 1996, applicable to all workers of Key Tronic Corporation located in Spokane, Washington. The notice was published in the Federal Register on April 9, 1996 (61 FR 15832).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers produce computer keyboards and peripherals. New information provided by the company shows that workers separations have occurred at the subject firms' El Paso, Texas and Las Cruces, New Mexico locations.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Key Tronic Corporation who were adversely affected by imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover the workers separated from Key Tronic Southwest, El Paso, Texas and Las Cruces, New Mexico.

The amended notice applicable to TA–W–31, 973 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Key Tronic Corporation, Spokane, Washington (TA–W–31, 973) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 2, 1995 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and all workers of Key Tronic Southwest, El Paso, Texas (TA–W–31, 973A) and Key Tronic Southwest, Las Cruces, New Mexico who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after October 13, 1996 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 18th day of October 1996.
