Delegation of Authority 229

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the laws of the United States, including the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, the Arms Export Control Act, and the State Department Basic Authorities Act, and relevant delegations of authority, including the memorandum delegation signed by the President on November 4, 1997, and to the extent permitted by the law, I hereby delegate—

(a) all authorities vested in the Secretary of State (including all authorities delegated by the President to the Secretary of State by an act, order, determination, delegation of authority, regulation or executive order heretofore or hereinafter enacted or issued) that have been or may be delegated or redelegated to the Under Secretary of State for Arms Control and International Security—

(1) to John Holum for such period as he serves in the Department of State, except that, to the extent that such an authority derives from a delegation of authority from the President, this paragraph shall apply only to the extent that there is a statutory basis for delegating an authority to an individual with respect to whom the Senate has not provided advice and consent; and

(2) to the Assistant Secretary of State for Political-Military Affairs, for such functions as are within his area of responsibility, to the extent that such an authority derives from a delegation of authority from the President and the Office of the Legal Adviser has not identified a statutory basis for delegating the authority to an individual with respect to whom the Senate has not provided advice and consent; and

(b) to the Under Secretary of State for Arms Control and International Security all authorities that, before the effective date described in section 1201 of the Foreign Affairs Agencies consolidation Act of 1998 (the “Act”) were vested in the Director of the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency and that, pursuant to amendments made by the Act, are now vested in the Secretary of State.

This delegation of authority shall be without prejudice to the authority of any person to exercise any authority pursuant to any other applicable delegation of authority.
