DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATIONNotice Inviting Applicants To Serve as Field Readers for the Community Technology Centers Program

SUMMARY: The Office of Vocational and Adult Education (OVAE) invites interested individuals to apply to serve as field readers evaluating grant applications for the Community Technology Centers Program. The Community Technology Centers Program is intended to increase access to information technology and related services for adults and children in economically distressed low-income urban and rural communities through grants to establish or expand community technology centers.

Duties and Compensation of Field Readers: Field readers will review applications according to the applicable selection criteria. Each field reader will serve for a period of approximately 5 days. Each field reader who is selected will receive compensation for certain travel expenses and an honorarium.

Field Reader Qualifications: The Department is seeking experienced and knowledgeable professionals who are current with issues regarding the provision of computers and technology to residents of low-income urban and rural communities. These professionals should be familiar with issues dealing with the start-up and expansion of community technology centers; use of technology in adult, elementary or secondary education programs; technology and technology management; or community development and outreach to residents of low-income communities. Prospective field readers may include technology providers, administrators, and experts; individuals with experience in use of technology in elementary, secondary or adult education; individuals from State agencies, elementary and secondary education, institutions of higher education, and community-based organizations and agencies; and individuals with experience in providing access to technology in low-income communities. Each field reader must have the expertise necessary to accurately assess an applicant's showing on the applicable selection criteria.

Application Process: Any individual interested in serving as a field reader should mail or fax two copies of his or her resume to the address listed below indicating the program in which they are interested in serving as a field reader. Resumes should not exceed two pages and should include a Social
